

DR. COURTNEY SKIERA-VAUGHN

Hello FTG family,

I've had the absolute honor of leading Free The Girls over the past nine years - through the introduction of graduation, incorporating education specifically tailored for trafficking survivors, expanding our services, and introducing new countries - it has been incredibly meaningful work for me. In my tenure with this organization, I have also had the honor of giving birth to my four children, and now I'm looking forward to stepping away from leading FTG and being able to spend more time focused on them. This work is hard, and this work is sacred, and I know in this new season, having someone wholly dedicated to its mission will only serve it well. I can't wait to see what is next with FTG, and I will continue to champion for the staff, our partners overseas, and the strong, inspiring women who FTG is allowed to serve.

Thank you all for an amazing nine years,
